

Columbia Pike Hike I

Description - (Mostly flat with the exception of S. Englewood St.)

First traveled in 1801 when it was known as the Columbia Turnpike, Columbia Pike is an invaluable transportation corridor currently being transformed into a real walkable main street. Its vast array of eateries reflects the diverse backgrounds of the surrounding communities. This Walkabout is an easy perusal of the eastern end of Columbia Pike, South Arlington's main street.

Length - 1.9 miles plus optional 0.6-mile add-on
